Introduction of National Cheng Kung University

National Cheng Kung University (NCKU) is a key university in Taiwan, especially in the southern part of the island. There are many advanced national-scale research centers and laboratories to support the teaching and research environment at NCKU. Ranking among the top schools in Taiwan, the NCKU is an academically renowned institution, with over 20,000 students in 60 departments within 9 colleges: Liberal Arts, Sciences, Engineering, Electrical Engineering & Computer Science, Planning & Design, Management, Social Sciences, Medicine, and Bioscience & Biotechnology. NCKU currently offers 40 undergraduate programs (excluding Program of Bachelor's Degree), 78 master's degree programs, 54 doctoral programs and 20 master's degree programs for working professionals. The University has long established its tradition of academic excellence since its old days as "Tainan Technical College." A preeminent faculty with state-of-the-art facilities has provided our students a solid platform and starting point from where they can build a career. There are many advanced national-scale research centers and laboratories to support the teaching and research environment at NCKU

NCKU has currently established substantial academic collaboration with 97 outstanding universities in the world, including institutions in Australia, Austria, Belgium, Cambodia, Canada, France, Germany, Guatemala, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, People's Republic of China, Singapore, Thailand, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, and the United States. The goals of such collaboration are to promote faculty and student exchange, to organize two-way scholarly visits, to co-sponsor international conferences, and to assist joint research projects.

Hereby invites international students to join us to study in the historic city of Tainan in Taiwan. NCKU has also achieved remarkable success in globalization. Not only has an English-speaking environment been built to attract hundreds of international students, but substantive academic ties have also been established with many world-class universities and institutes abroad. At NCKU, global scholarly exchange is ongoing all the time. Many top-notch scholars and experts devote themselves to NCKU, in which students can gain innovative knowledge from them. With a population slightly over 0.7 million, Tainan enjoys a unique combination of traditional cultures and modern varieties. Situated in the heart of the city, NCKU welcomes you with her broad campus and friendly students. Come and enjoy a fruitful stay with us!

International Graduate Program in Civil Engineering and Management (ICEM)

I . Introduction of Program

As one of the key educational institutes in cultivating finest civil engineers in Taiwan, the Department of Civil Engineering at National Cheng Kung University now provides a unique International Graduate Program of Civil Engineering and Management (ICEM) for graduate students pursuing a degree of Master of Science. With a full spectrum of courses on theoretical backgrounds and technological applications, ICEM provides a complete overview in a broad area of civil engineering, including structural engineering, geotechnical engineering, transportation engineering, engineering materials, geomatics, environmental engineering, hydraulic and ocean engineering, and engineering management.

II . Qualification

Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree (students graduating this year included) at universities or colleges approved by the Taiwan Ministry of Education or equivalent credentials.

III. Admission

● Program Overview

As one of the key educational facilities in cultivating finest civil engineers in Taiwan, the Department of Civil Engineering at NCKU now offers a unique blend of courses geared specifically for international students interested in civil engineering and management. With a full spectrum of courses on theories and practical applications, the program provides a complete overview of managerial and technical issues in the field of civil engineering.

● Objectives :

1. Assisting friendly nations in training professionals in the fields of Civil Engineering and Management and expanding cooperation to strengthen relationships between Taiwan and its allies.
2. Strengthening students' theoretical foundation and practical training in Civil Engineering and Management.
3. Advancing local students' global vision and English skills by providing interaction with international students, thereby also helping to equip them with the ability to compete internationally.

● Scope of Curriculum

1. This program includes four core courses (Financial and Cost Management for Construction; Project Planning and Schedule Control; Organization and Performance; Management Construction Information Systems) and 20+ courses in management and technical fields.
2. A minimum of 30 credits in coursework (10 courses) and 6 credits master's thesis must be completed.

3. The students will earn the “Master of Science” degree from the College of Engineering after completing their studies.

4. Course List

(1) Management Field :

- Decision Analysis and Risk Management
- Construction Dispute Resolution
- Pavement Engineering and Management
- Operations Research
- Water Resource Planning and Management
- Managerial Economics
- Operations Management
- International Business Management
- Ecological Water Resources Management

(2) Technology Field :

- Theory of Elasticity
- Theory of Plates
- Finite Element Method
- Mechanical Properties of Materials
- Introduction to Geosynthetics Engineering
- Advanced in Geosynthetics Engineering
- System Analysis for Civil Engineering
- Advanced Steel Structure
- Computer-Aided Analysis in Engineering
- Advanced Hydrology
- Water Resource System Analysis
- Advanced Ground Water
- Stream Ecology
- Special Topics on Solid Waste

- Application procedure:

- ◆ Step1: Fill out the on-line application form (<http://admissions.oia.ncku.edu.tw/en>), and submit the electronic documents (see below).
- ◆ Step2: Print out the application form, post it with the supporting documents to the Office of International Affairs.
- The supporting documents to be sent by post: (1) The printed online application form. (2) The applicant's highest degree diploma and official transcript, verified with official stamps by the R.O.C. (Taiwan) embassies, consulates, or missions abroad or by other notary institutes authorized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, R.O.C. ( if the original diploma or transcript is not in Chinese or English, a notarized copy of a translation in English or Chinese is necessary). (3) Two recommendation letters. (4) A study plan. (5) Proof of language proficiency. (6) Medical Report.

- Notes:

- (1) Applications and all supporting documents postmarked later than March 15, 2010 will not be accepted. If there is any missing document, your application will be considered incomplete and will not be considered for further processing. No submitted documents will be returned.
- (2) If your degree diploma is not verified by any official institute recognized by R.O.C. (Taiwan), your application will be considered incomplete and will not be considered for further processing.
