1. About the TaiwanICDF

The International Cooperation and Development Fund (TaiwanICDF) is dedicated to boosting socio-economic development, enhancing human resources and promoting economic relations in a range of developing partner countries. We also offer humanitarian assistance and provide aid in the event of natural disasters or international refugee crises.

To carry out our mission, we offer a range of assistance that centers on four core operations: lending and investment, technical cooperation, humanitarian assistance, and international education and training. Our Fund is used to make direct or indirect investments and to finance lending operations. Revenues generated by the Fund are used to support our bilateral or multilateral technical cooperation projects, humanitarian assistance operations and education and training.

Every new project from the TaiwanICDF proceeds according to a rigorous project cycle and is backed by mutual covenants signed in cooperation with relevant stakeholders. Our projects are designed to address the strategic development goals of each of our partner countries, pay due consideration to associated regional trends, and maximize results by employing the right combination of capital and technical cooperation.

Ultimately, our work is tailor-made to the local needs of each partner country. Our assistance covers a variety of contemporary development issues such as environmental protection, public health, agriculture, education, and information and communications technology.

We are also acting to improve human resources and build institutional capacity at the TaiwanICDF itself. We believe that as a stronger, more professional organization, we will be better placed to advise decision-making bodies within our government. Efforts to improve our own organization will also help us to deepen the coverage of our projects and transfer technological know-how to our partners. We aspire to making the most effective use of manpower and resources, and replicating and adapting successful experiences from one partner country to another.

2. Overview of the International Higher Education Scholarship Program

International education and training from the TaiwanICDF shares Taiwan's own development experiences with developing partner countries around the world. Our aim is to help these partner countries cultivate and nurture a talented pool of human resources.

To achieve this objective, our International Education and Training Department performs a range of interconnected operations. Our in-depth, professional workshops are dedicated to contemporary trends in development, while our higher education scholarship program draws on expertise at Taiwanese universities to strengthen know-how in critical disciplines. We also cooperate with a number of international organizations on training projects.

Our International Higher Education Scholarship Program was initiated in 1998 when we joined forces with a group of Taiwanese universities to offer scholarships for a number of English-language courses, up to and including Ph.D. level.

The program enables talented young citizens to come to Taiwan to pursue their higher education and follow course materials and learning objectives that are specifically designed to address key development issues. The program provides full financial support for tuition and living expenses, and having grown in scope over the years, now covers 35 courses from 21 universities — 12 bachelor's, 21 master's and two Ph.D. programs. These courses focus on the development needs of our partner countries by addressing issues such as tropical agriculture, aquatic sciences, business administration, information technology, human resource development, medicine and public health, or various fields of engineering. All of these disciplines are in high demand in our developing partner countries. We aim to boost social development and economic growth by generating a pool of quality human resources.

3. TaiwanICDF Scholarship Application Instructions

3.1 Eligibility

Applicants applying for a TaiwanICDF scholarship must meet both the general eligibility criteria (please refer to appendix 1) and be a national of a country on the List of Countries Eligible for TaiwanICDF Scholarship (please refer to appendix 2). Applicants must also meet the Regulations Governing Visiting, Resident, and Permanent Residency of Aliens set by ROC (Taiwan) National Immigration Agency.

Please Note: All Undergraduate Programs only accept applications submitted by citizens of allied countries of ROC (Taiwan).

3.2 Application Procedure

The 2017 TaiwanICDF Scholarship application period will run from January 1 to March 17 (GMT +08:00). For the 2017 TaiwanICDF International Higher Education Scholarship Program, there are a total of 31 study programs available for scholarship application.

Applicants should: (1) complete the TaiwanICDF International Higher Education Scholarship Program Online Application, and (2) submit the documents listed below to the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Consulate (General)/Representative Office in their country. Applicants must ensure that they submit accurate and complete documentation; failure to do so will result in the application not being processed. Please also note: (1) Late submissions will not be accepted and/or processed; (2) All Undergraduate Programs only accept applications submitted by citizens of allied countries of ROC (Taiwan).

Documents to be submitted:

1. A photocopy of applicant's passport or other document showing proof of nationality.

2. A photocopy of applicant's highest-level diploma and academic transcripts.

3. A photocopy of applicant's English proficiency certificate.

Please note: This means a TOEFL test score or that of another recognized English proficiency exam, or documents certifying that the applicant has graduated from a program where all courses were taught in English. Applicants who are unable to provide such proof of English proficiency due to special circumstances may be assessed for English proficiency by an ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Consulate (General)/Representative Office via interview or other forms of testing. Applicants whose official national language is English are exempt from needing to supply these documents.

4. Two letters of reference.

5. Any other documents specifically requested by an ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Consulate (General)/ Representative Office.

Please Note: In addition to the above documents requested as part of their scholarship application, applicants should also submit all documents required by the TaiwanICDF partner university that they are applying to before the admission deadline of that university. For detailed information on such documents, please refer to Section 4: Study Programs Available for TaiwanICDF Scholarship Application at Partner Universities in 2017 in this brochure and the related websites of each study program for further admission information.

The ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Consulate (General)/Representative Office will conduct a first review of applicants based on the eligibility requirements and selection criteria of the TaiwanICDF, and then submit their list of recommended applicants to the TaiwanICDF no later than March 31 each year.

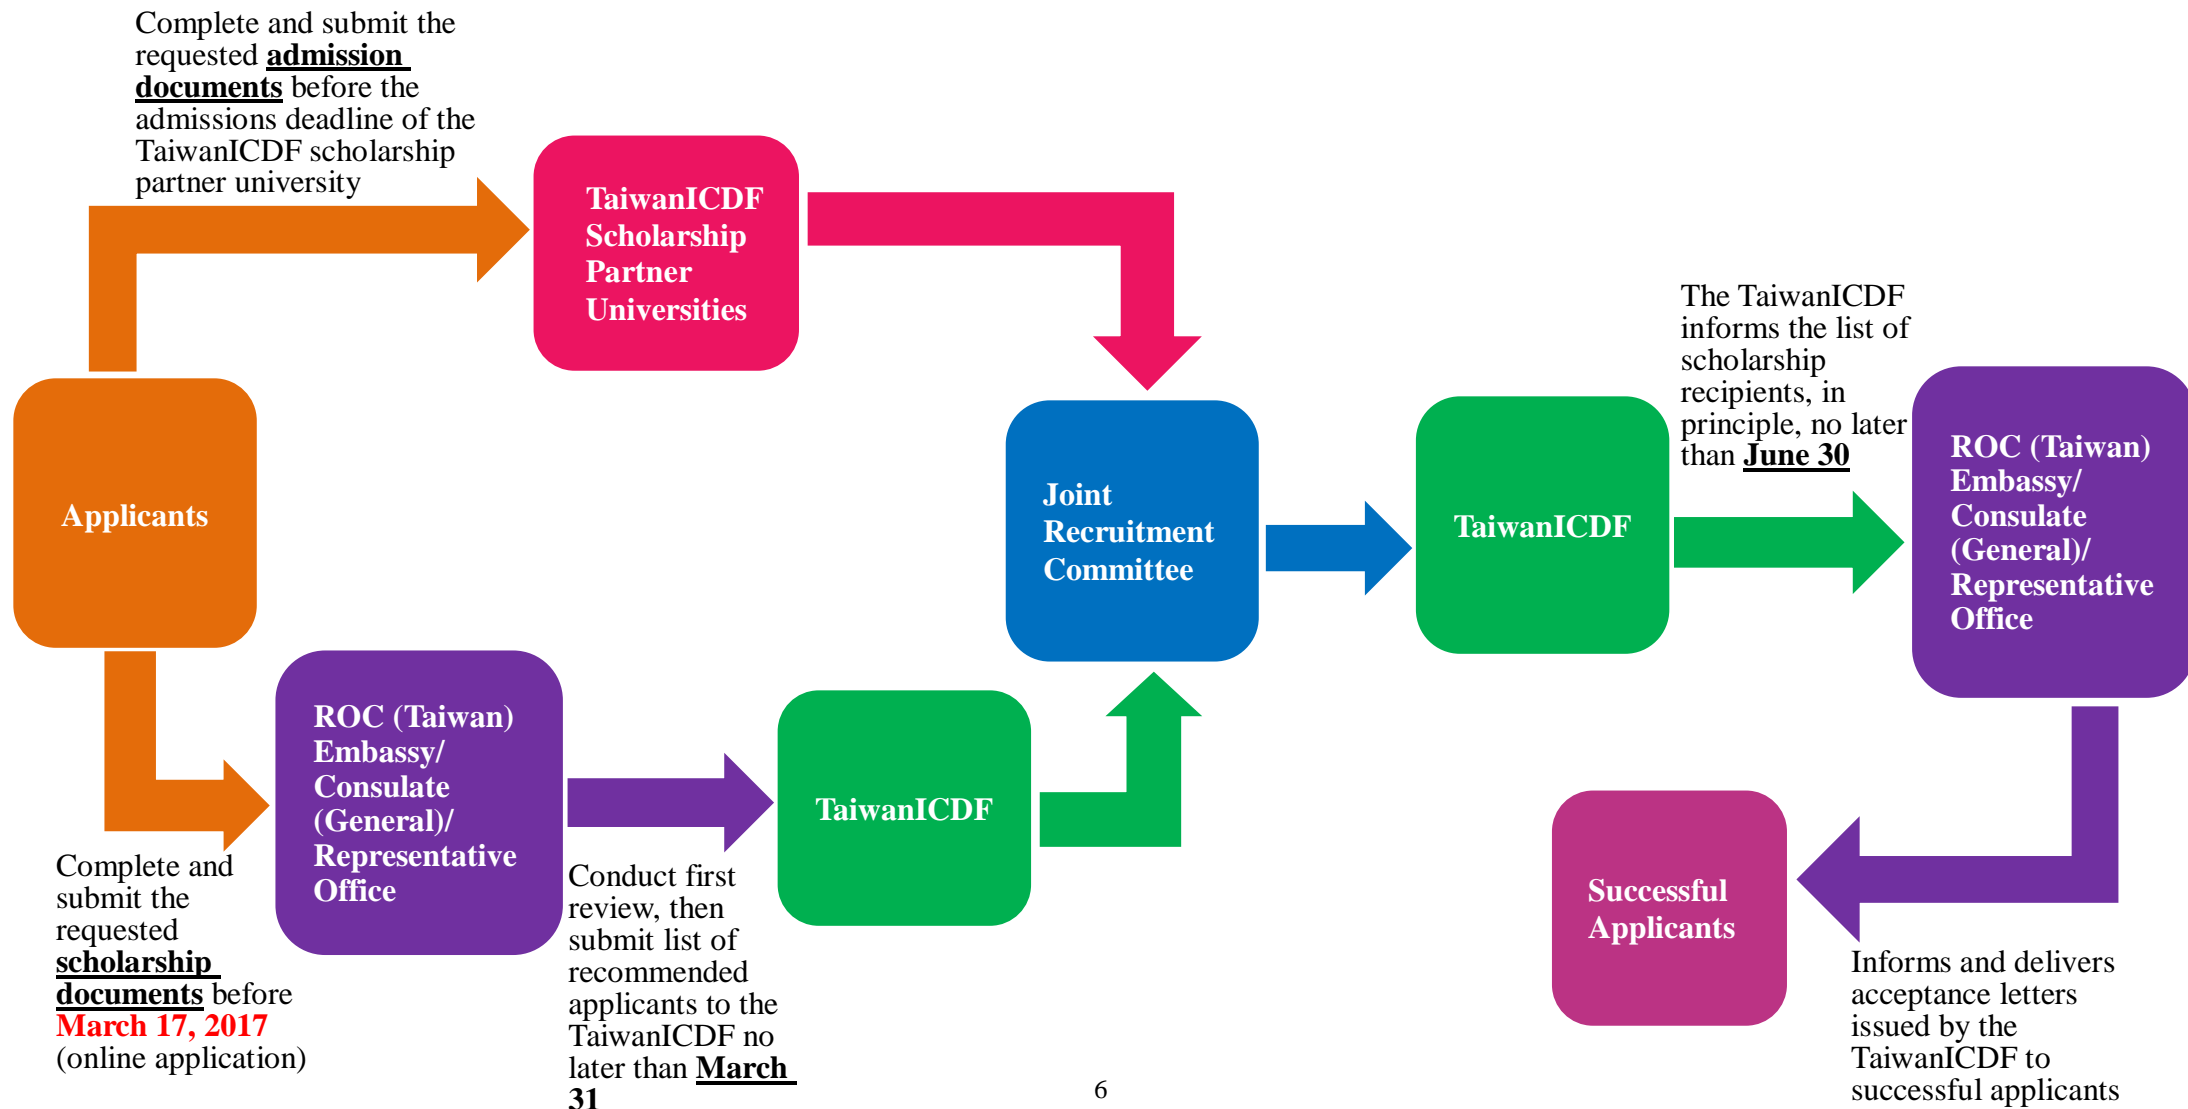

A second review of the qualified applicants will be conducted by an academic committee organized by the individual partner university in joint cooperation with TaiwanICDF representatives. Such reviews will be based on each university's selection criteria, whilst also accounting for the eligibility requirements and selection criteria of the TaiwanICDF.

After the second review has been conducted in cooperation with all partner universities, the TaiwanICDF will announce its list of scholarship recipients, in principle, no later than June 30 each year. Successful applicants will receive an acceptance letter through the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy/Consulate (General)/Representative Office to whom they originally applied.

Please note: Gaining admission from the university does not necessarily mean that the applicant has also been given a TaiwanICDF scholarship. Only the applicant who receives the acceptance letter issued by the TaiwanICDF is the scholarship recipient.

National Chengchi University

No. 64, Sec. 2, Zhinan Rd., Taipei 116, Taiwan

National Chengchi University (NCCU)

International Master of Business Administration (IMBA)

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The International MBA (IMBA) program offered by National Chengchi University (NCCU) has dual accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) and the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS), a key indicator of our quality resources in business education.

The IMBA program is designed to develop qualified candidates to be leaders in the field of international business, with a special focus on the Asia-Pacific region. With the continued growth of Asia's emerging economies and the expansion of firms on a global scale, the NCCU IMBA offers the perfect venue for international candidates to learn about Asian economies.

The IMBA program requires a minimum of 42 credits to graduate. Required courses account for 24 credits, including Business Quantitative Methods, Corporate Social Responsibility and Ethics, Financial Management, Leaders Forum, Leadership and Team Building, Accounting, Managerial Economics, Management Information Systems, Marketing Management, and Strategic Management. The elective courses fall under four areas of concentration: Entrepreneurship, Finance, Management in Asia and Marketing. Students have the option of taking the required number of courses to achieve a concentration or take courses across concentrations to graduate with a General MBA.

The IMBA program provides an optimal international and multicultural learning environment by maintaining balance between Taiwanese and international students admitted to the program. The international students represent professionals from over 35 countries in 5 continents. They are guided by our faculty base comprised of academics and industry experts in Taiwan and from around the world.

The IMBA faculty come from three equally qualified pools of local and international talent. A third of the instructors hail from faculty members of the College of Commerce at National Chengchi University (CNCCU), most of whom have earned Ph.Ds from prestigious universities around the world. Another third of the faculty represent renowned scholars from top overseas business schools as visiting instructors and a final third of the faculty are comprised of industry senior executives who have long standing real-world business experience.

The international aspect of each and every area of the IMBA, including the courses, student body, and faculty, make this program truly unique. What further differentiates the IMBA from other MBA programs are the featured courses that integrate our expertise in Asia provided under the Management in Asia concentration. Aside from developing a global view in world business trends, it is just as essential to gain an Asian perspective of business. Our program is the perfect conduit for learning all about this growing region.

✧ ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of or the equivalent of a four-year bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.
2. Minimum of two years of full-time post-baccalaureate work experience.
3. Satisfactory previous academic achievement.
4. TOEFL score or other evidence of English proficiency whose native language is not English.
5. Any other materials that will help the Admissions Committee assess the applicant's potential.

✧ HOW TO APPLY

To apply for the IMBA with a grant of TaiwanICDF Higher Education Scholarship Program, applicants MUST successfully complete two application procedures – One for IMBA and the other for TaiwanICDF scholarship.

Step 1. For IMBA application, please use the IMBA online application system at

National Tsing Hua University (NTHU)

International Master Program in Information Systems and Applications (IMPISA)

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

National Tsing Hua University is located next to the Industry Technology Research Institute (ITRI) and Hsinchu Science and Industrial Park. Within an hour driving, you can reach the Hsinchu Industrial District, Chu Nan Industrial District, Tai Chung Industrial District and Tung Luo Industrial District. Apart from all these industrial districts, National Tsing Hua University already has very strong research sources, achievements and work teams of Science, Engineering, Life Science, Humanities & Social Science and Technology Management. The key direction of this program is twofold: One is to combine technology talents and resources within the school; the other is to take the hi-tech industrial companies next to National Tsing Hua University as training places for students.

- The plan of this program is to follow certain directions as the intention of development of IMPISA. The directions are as follows:

1. Train innovative information technology personnel. The courses will focus on the three major fields:

- ◆ Data Science

We are looking for students from different domain knowledge, such as electrical engineering, education, business management, humanities & social sciences, and medicine. Under the cross-scope and multi-cultural environments plus the lectures and advising from our professors who are specialized in data mining, machine learning, artificial intelligence, natural language, and big data analysis, IMPISA is a perfect place to train outstanding data scientists.

- ◆ Creative Multimedia

IMPISA has lots of experiences in creative multimedia and have obtained some distinguished and breakthroughs in recent years. In this group, we are focusing on combining information system with other knowledges, such as Wireless Multimedia Networking Technologies and Computer Vision for Visual Effects to name a few.

- ◆ Human-centered Interaction and User Experience

Consist topics related to intelligent human computer interface, natural language, learning technology and information media. Based on the four topics, we also extend our research to game programming, user experience, social computing, intelligent agents, MOOCs, E-learning and so on and so forth.

2. Encourage foreign students to take relevant culture courses to learn within a multi-cultural environment.
3. Provide students to have opportunities to visit local technology industries in order to understand Taiwanese industry.
4. Assist students to participate in research projects from high-tech companies.

- Program Plan

1. Graduate credits will be 24 credits, plus 4 credits for thesis; altogether there will be 28 credits.

2. There will be two pre-courses, which shall not be counted into the graduate credit, including Computer Programming and Data Structure. Basically, these two courses are prerequisite to apply for this program.
3. IMPISA program will require two years for a student to graduate.

✧ ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. Completion of a four-year bachelor's degree or its equivalent.
2. Minimum TOEFL score of 550 (paper-based test)/215 (computer-based test)/80 (internet-based test) or TOEIC score of 750 is preferable, or another certificate of English proficiency for international applicants whose native language is not English.

International Master Program for Environment Sustainable Development

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

This program aims to nurture expertise in sustainable development among the next generation of professionals working in technology and management as well as to promote the international cooperation. The program is divided into three areas: Energy Technology and Policy; Environmental Technology and Geographic Information System (GIS) and Remote Sensing.

A minimum of 32 credits is required for graduation. Students will receive a 'Master of Science' degree from the International Master's Program in Environment Sustainable Development, College of Engineering, after completing their studies.

✧ ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

1. Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree in fields related to engineering and science (such as environmental, mechanical, civil, electrical/electronics, industrial, energy, chemical/chemistry, physics, mathematics, etc.) at universities/colleges approved by the Taiwan Ministry of Education.
2. Native English-speakers do not need to submit TOEFL or other evidence of English proficiency examination.

✧ HOW TO APPLY

Step 1. Please visit the Admissions: <http://admissions.oia.ncu.edu.tw/>

Step 2. Fill out the online application form: personal information, language proficiency, applying departments etc.

Step 3. Upload all the required documents

Step 4. Fill in the Recommenders' Information

Step 5. Confirm and submit the application

✧ SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS FOR APPLICATION

You must provide the following supporting documents:

1. Complete online Application Form
2. Official diploma of the highest degree with verification by the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy / Consulate General / Representative Office in the country of the issuing university (when the original diploma issued by the institution in neither in Chinese nor English, an English or Chinese verified copy is required.)
3. Official transcript of the highest degree, verified by the ROC (Taiwan) Embassy / Consulate General / Representative Office in the country of the issuing university (when the original transcript issued by the institution in neither in Chinese nor English, an English or Chinese verified copy is required.)
4. Evidence of English proficiency (applicants should provide test results obtained within the last two years)

5. One photocopy of passport (page with photo)
6. One signed copy of Direction of Future Research form
7. Autobiography written in English
8. Study plan written in English. We have three major areas of courses: Energy Technology and policy, Environment Technology and Geographic Information System (GIS) and Remote Sensing.
9. Research proposal written in English. The applicants should write a research proposal on one of the three research areas (environment, energy, and GIS and remote sensing) which the applicant is interested in. The program will advise you to a thesis advisor according to the applicant choice in the first semester.
10. Two letters of recommendation written in English
11. Declaration for International Student Application with original signature
12. Document Declaration with original signature
13. Dormitory Application Form
14. Other related documents

International Master's Program in Electric Power Engineering (IMEPE)

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

International Master's Program in Electric Power Engineering (IMEPE) specializes in electric power engineering, including electric machine drives, power systems and power electronics, networks and controls. The objectives of IMEPE are:

1. Assisting international students in developing advanced electric power engineering capacities.
2. Promoting professional exchanges among international experts in electric power engineering.
3. Enhancing the electric power engineering design and analytical capabilities of diplomatic allies.

Academic Requirement: Students enrolled in this program are required to complete twenty-four (24) units of academic courses having three (3) units each. Four (4) of these courses shall be taken from the core courses specifically designed for this program. Students need to seek the advice of his faculty adviser to help him design his academic loading. With the approval of the program director, the remaining four (4) courses can be taken at the students' liberty from any of the Engineering courses available. The eight (8) specifically designed courses for this program are:

1. Advanced Electric Machinery Theory
2. Finite Element Analysis of Electric Machinery Systems
3. Linear System Analysis
4. Load Flow Analysis
5. Optimal Control
6. Power Electronics Converter
7. Power Quality
8. Power System Operations

Thesis Requirement: A Master's thesis in the field of electric power engineering is a strong requisite for graduation. Students enrolled in this program are required to submit and defend his/her thesis to a panel of 3-5 committee members. The topic of the thesis should be related to his/her specialties and meet the need of the industrial development of the student's country.

✧ ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree in fields related to electrical/electronics engineering at universities/colleges approved by the Taiwan Ministry of Education.

✧ HOW TO APPLY

To complete the application, please remember to apply on NSYSU website as well and mail required document to NSYSU.

Step 1. Please visit: <http://oiasys.oia.nsysu.edu.tw/student>

Step 2. Applicants must upload the following documents to <http://oiasys.oia.nsysu.edu.tw/> before the deadline:

- (a) Application Form: the form will be generated automatically after completing the online application form.
- (b) The “Statutory Declaration form” and “Statement of Declaration on Foreign Academic Background”: both forms will be generated automatically after completing the online application form.
- (c) Certificate of Highest-Level Diploma and Transcript (Chinese or English) : For graduate programs, please provide Bachelor Degree Diploma.
- (d) One financial statement issued by a bank in the country which the applicant resides : Please provide ICDF application form instead.
- (e) A photocopy of Certificate of Nationality : i.e. passport, birth certificate or R.O.C ARC.
- (f) Other materials required by IMEPE.

Step 3. To complete application procedure online, print and sign the following forms:

- (a) application form
- (b) statutory declaration form
- (c) statement of declaration

Step 4. These signed documents should either be mailed or delivered in person to the Office of International Affairs at Room 1006 of the Administration Building before the deadline.

✧ SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS FOR APPLICATION

You must provide the following supporting documents:

1. Two copies of completed application forms
2. Photocopy of a valid passport or Alien Resident Certificate or birth certificate
3. Copies of Diploma and Transcript of Record
 - (a) Two photocopies of diploma (should be authenticated by Taiwan representative office in the area where the university is located).
 - * Please note that applicants who are admitted to the program MUST provide a diploma verified by the Taiwan Embassy/Representative Office to register at the university.
 - (b) Two photocopies of diploma translated in English/Chinese if the original copy is written in any other language.
 - (c) Two original copies of transcript of record (should be authenticated by Taiwan representative office in the area where the university is located and have them stamped and sealed by the university).
 - (d) Two copies of transcript of record translated in English/Chinese if the original copy is written in any other language.
4. Copies of English proficiency verification. Applicants from countries where English is not the native language, or those who have completed their bachelor’s degree at a non-English speaking academic institution are required to take the TOEFL or provide English-proficiency verification.
5. Two sealed letters of recommendation

Master in Educational Leadership and Management Development (ELMD)

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The International Master Program in Educational Leadership and Management Development (ELMD) is a full English program at National Chung Cheng University (CCU), mainly contributed by the academic staff from the Graduate Institute of Education, the Department of Adult and Continuing Education and the Center for Teacher Education. Our faculty members are not merely experienced teachers but also experts in research and educational practices, particularly on the trends and issues in the fields of Educational Leadership, Management and Development.

To promote high-quality pursuit of profound knowledge and to respond enthusiastically to the overwhelming global trends form the solid basis of the Program. With a Master degree in Education, our graduates are expected to find successful employment as an education practitioner in an educational system, a manager working in the public sector or a private learning organization, or as a researcher contributing to the academia.

We aim to offer a holistic educational experience in Taiwan. Your experience would be a journey of gaining knowledge and skills, expanding your qualifications, and building your international connection as a professional. Our two-year program is structured into compulsory and elective courses, personal/group assignments, and research. By engaging in these activities, you are encouraged to explore educational issues in Taiwan as well as in the global context.

✧ ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

School of Medicine for International Students

✧ ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The School of Medicine for International Students is a newly established four-year M.D. program (taught in English for Bachelor's degree) in compliance with the government policy that aims to cultivate passionate and devoted international medical professionals for countries that have a diplomatic relationship with Taiwan. Students are conferred only a Bachelor's diploma in English upon graduation and must return to their home countries after graduation, and students are not allowed to take the medical licensing examination or to conduct medical practice in Taiwan.

As one of the leading universities in southern Taiwan, ISU provides students with innovative ideas and excellent teaching resources in order to foster them to be well-trained and qualified health professionals. The program will be carried out in a close partnership with E-Da Hospital, a well-recognized teaching hospital affiliated to E United Group, which has received a full accreditation from the Joint Commission International (JCI), an U.S.-based independent and non-profit organization and the first Collaborating Center designated by World Health Organization (WHO). Students will be able to not only learn from distinguished professors, doctors and specialists, but also have direct access to state-of-the-art medical facilities, so that the basic medical sciences and the clinical training can be fully integrated.

The mission of the School of Medicine for International Students is to nurture internationally accredited doctors dedicated to humanitarian service and global healthcare and therefore the education goals are as follows :

To pursue outstanding, innovative and comprehensive medical education.

To foster devoted general doctors for society.

To achieve excellent level in both medical education and research.

Appendix 1: General Eligibility Criteria for TaiwanICDF Scholarship

An applicant must:

- ✓ Be a citizen of a country on the List of Countries Eligible for TaiwanICDF Scholarship, and satisfy any specific criteria established by his or her country and/or government of citizenship.
- ✓ Neither be a national of the Republic of China (Taiwan) nor an overseas compatriot student.
- ✓ Satisfy the admission requirements of the partner university to which he or she has applied to study under a TaiwanICDF scholarship.
- ✓ Be able to satisfy all requirements for a Resident Visa (Code: FS) set by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) set by the Ministry of the Interior, of the ROC (Taiwan) government (this means that the TaiwanICDF has the right to revoke a scholarship offered if an applicant cannot satisfy the visa requirements).
- ✓ Upon accepting a TaiwanICDF scholarship, not hold any other ROC (Taiwan) government-sponsored scholarship (such as the Taiwan Scholarship) in the same academic year in which the TaiwanICDF scholarship would be due to commence.
- ✓ Not be applying for a further TaiwanICDF scholarship in unbroken succession — applicants who have already held a TaiwanICDF scholarship, MOFA's Taiwan Scholarship or an MOE scholarship must have returned to their home country for more than one year before re-applying (note: to apply for a 2017 scholarship, an applicant must have graduated and returned to his or her home country before July 31, 2016).
- ✓ Have never had any scholarship revoked by any ROC (Taiwan) government agency or related institution, nor been expelled from any Taiwanese university.
