

Transdisciplinary Program in College of Education

About the program

- Established in 2019
- Stand for the values of human-oriented, customization and diverse development
- Encourage transdisciplinary learnings

2019-2024 Stream Module

- Students enroll as non-majors during their first two undergraduate years.
- Apply for majors after one-and-half or two-year learnings, and raise the possibilities of choosing the majors proper to their competence accordingly

Students' Structure

	Taiwan	Hong Kong	Macau	Malaysia	Myanmar	Japan	Indonesia	Paraguay	Vietnam	Belgium	Tajikistan
2019	21
2020	22
2021	23	1	0	2		1	1
2022	22
2023	20		1	1	2
2024	22		1	2	2			1	1	1	1

About the program

EMI

Specialization Module

- Four-year-program
- Main Specialization: International Leadership and Innovation
- Secondary Specialization: Digital and Innovative Industry, Health and Wellbeing, Human Resources and Career Planning

Stream Module

- One-and-half-year or two-year program
- Students are expected to apply for their majors from six departments and one program in College of Education

2024- Specialization Module

- Emphasize “ Boundary-crossing and integration”
- Provide students with comprehensive training, equip students with skills in conducting interdisciplinary thinking, practice, and innovation in education

Visions

Cultivate
bilingual professionals
in the specialized fields

Cultivate talents in educational research and practical paradigms

Cultivate international leaders in education

Features

- Interdisciplinary, Intercollegiate, and Interuniversity Learning

Crossing into different disciplinary fields to acquire diverse knowledge and skills.

- Joint Teaching by Overseas Faculty

Interacting with teachers and students from around the world enhances students' understanding of different cultures, viewpoints, and global thinking.

- Overseas Educational Visit

2023-Kyushu University; 2024-Chiba University

Curriculum

32 credits

General Course

- Chinese
- English
- General Education Courses
- Physical Education

39 credits

Main Specialization

International Leadership and Innovation

12 credits

Secondary Specialization

- Digital and Innovative Industry
- Health and Wellbeing
- Human Resources & Career Planning

Choose one or more Secondary Specializations

24 credits

Elective Courses

21 credits

Free Elective Credits

Educational Visit to Kyushu U. in 2023

Educational Visit to Kyushu U. in 2023

Educational Visit to Chiba U. in 2024

Educational Visit to Chiba U. in 2024

Our Graduate Students

2023

2024

Students' Activities

Transdisciplinary Program in College of Education
