Transdisciplinary
Program in
College of Education

ABOUT

Transdisciplinary Program in College of Education (TPICOE) was established in 2019.

By standing for the values of human orientation, customization, and diverse development, we encourage students to pursue transdisciplinary learning.

In 2024, TPICOE will emphasize not only boundary-crossing but also integration. We are transitioning to an undergraduate program taught in English and intend to provide students with comprehensive training, equipping them with skills in conducting interdisciplinary thinking, practice, and innovation in education.
