Note: Pursuant to Article 1174 of the Civil Code of the Republic of China (Taiwan), "an heir may waive his or her right to an inheritance. Such waiver . . . must be asserted by a written declaration to the court within three months after becoming aware of his or her right to the inheritance. After the waiver of inheritance, he or she shall notify in writing the person who is entitled to succeed the inheritance due to his or her waiver unless such a notification is impractical." In addition, pursuant to Article 1176 of the Civil Code, "where a person, who becomes an heir due to the waiver of other heirs, waives his or her right to the inheritance, such waiver must be conducted within three months after becoming aware of his or her right to the inheritance."
