Taiwan's universities have been steadily climbing and achieving greater global prominence in recent years, establishing Taipei City as one of Asia's leading higher education hubs.

In Taiwan, students can pursue higher learning at two-year and four-year colleges, and universities. University undergraduate programs usually require four years of study; graduate programs leading to a master's degree require one to four years, and doctorate programs require two to seven years. Some programs require an internship that can be as short as one or two months or as long as two years.

TAIWAN'S EDUCATION SYSTEM

CHOOSING WHERE TO APPLY AND STUDY

The curriculum at most universities focuses on academic studies and research. Universities of technology focus on training practical and specific skills. A wide range of colleges and universities welcome international applicants. Applicants can choose a college or university based on their personal interests and the courses offered. A list of universities and colleges, public and private, can be found on the Study in Taiwan (www.studyintaiwan.org) website.

The school really cares about its students. A lot of activities are offered to help us quickly adjust to living here...I think that the biggest difference between Taiwan and Vietnam is the learning environment. Here in Taiwan, we can take Chinese and English courses. Additionally, there are many international students here which give us a lot of opportunities for exchange and further learning...Also, Taiwan welcomes foreigners who wish to work here...You can try to find a job here that suits you.

Many people might think that studying in an Asian country will be very stressful. But I think that it's really not as stressful as what they image it to be. If you want to come to Taiwan, I would suggest that you not worry about anything. Because Taiwan is a very safe country and is also very convenient. It's OK, if you can't speak Chinese. Taiwanese are such kind people. They'll be patient with you as they try to help you.

PART 2

TEN REASONS

For Filipino students to Study in Taiwan

Taiwan, the only place in the world where traditional Chinese writing is widely used, is an ideal place to learn Mandarin Chinese.

Taiwan, a gateway to Asia, provides exciting chances to experience quality higher education and connect with the Asian job market.

1 TOP-QUALITY UNIVERSITIES

11 Taiwan's universities are among the top 100 in Asia, in 2018 British QS Asia University Rankings. 31 Taiwan's universities are among the top 250 universities, in 2018 Times Higher Education Asia-Pacific University Rankings.

2 AFFORDABLE TUITION AND GENEROUS SCHOLARSHIPS

Taiwan's universities offer top-quality education while their tuition is inexpensive and affordable. Generally speaking, tuition for undergraduate program is around USD 1,500–1,800 per semester while tuition for graduate program is around USD 1,600–2,000 per semester. Taiwan's government and universities also provide enormous scholarships to attract global excellent students.

3 LEARN MANDARIN

Living and studying is the best way to learn Mandarin, as you will constantly be experiencing it in daily life. If you study in Taiwan, you can pursue a higher degree and learn Mandarin at the same time.

4 TALENT CULTIVATION FOR THE PHILIPPINES

Taiwan is a world leader in various fields particularly technology and healthcare. Scholarship opportunities offered to Filipino students will cultivate talents in these fields to elevate the local technology industry.

5 OPENNESS AND FREEDOM

According to the 2018 Freedom in the World Report made by Freedom House, 88 of 195 nations around the world were classified as free. Taiwan was amongst these free nations, receiving a score of 93 out of 100 and scored especially high in the areas of political rights and civil liberties.

6 STAY HEALTHY AND HAPPY

Taiwan's medical service is ranked as No. 3, next to the USA and Germany. In addition, Taiwan is highly praised for its outstanding National Health Insurance System. Overseas students have the access to the insurance scheme and can visit any specialist in Taiwan if it is needed.

7 OFFER TAILOR-MADE TRAINING AND STUDY PROGRAMS

Study in Taiwan to realize your dream of studying and working abroad. With tailor-made training in professional skills and internships in relative industries, plus outstanding vocational education, international programs of industry-academia collaboration will provide you with opportunities of immediate employment after graduation

8 DIVERSE CULTURE

Taiwan's preservation of Chinese culture (including characters) is the most complete but its integration of Chinese and Western cultures is the most harmonious in the process of modernization and widely praised by the world.

9 A WELCOMING COUNTRY FOR EXPATS

In 2018, 18,135 expats living in 187 countries or territories took part in the survey. Out of 68 destinations, Taiwan is ranked No. 2. In particular, Taiwan is ranked No. 1 for quality of life, No. 5 for travel and transport, No. 5 for health and well-being, and No. 14 for safety and security.

10 INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS

Schools and employers all over the world recognized degree from Taiwan universities. No Chinese language skills are required for Taiwan offers 66 English-taught Bachelor's degree programs, 263 English-taught master's programs, 148 English-taught doctoral programs in 2018.

TAIWAN EXPERIENCE EDUCATION PROGRAM Internship Opportunities

In 2015, Taiwan's Ministry of Education launched the Taiwan Experience Education Program (TEEP) to encourage more international students to participate in short-term professional internship projects organized by Taiwanese universities and colleges. TEEP also allows international students to gain an in-depth educational experience in Taiwan, while also preparing themselves for the Asian job market.

The wide range of programs under TEEP provides students from all backgrounds opportunities to immerse themselves in the operations of key Taiwan companies and industries. Moreover, TEEP helps students find relevant and useful job placements at various companies. In these positions, students will gain firsthand knowledge that will put them well on their way in the business world. To ease participants into their internships in Taiwan, TEEP also features cultural immersion activities to improve language and cultural fluency. All participants are provided with high-quality dormitory accommodations, as well as opportunities to learn to speak Mandarin Chinese.
